

Living your faith..

Matthew Arnold

..while you work for a living

It's hard enough to make life work-- to earn enough to support your family, to attain the goals you want for your life-style. Where does your faith fit in? What are your real priorities?

Christ puts the question like this: what good is material success if it costs you heaven?

Matthew Arnold's speech at the Breakfast Club will focus on how to integrate your Catholic spiritual life with your professional life.

Matt is Creative Director of St. Joseph Communications, and host of the nationally syndicated radio program, Scripture Matters with Dr. Scott Hahn. He'll tell us his story-- from being into the "New Age," to warming up studio audiences for Drew Carey and Friends TV shows, to his conversion to the Catholic faith, to a career in Catholic broadcasting.

Join Matt for breakfast and mingle with lots of folks who are trying to succeed in this life while they prepare for the next. He's been a professional musician and a professional magician. Will he pull a rabbit out of his hat?

Thursday, May 13, Sterling's Restaurant, Silver Legacy,
