

Let's see, today,
do I teach college or rescue persecuted Christians in Iraq?

Brother Donald Mansir

The Christian Brothers, founded in 1721, have the mission to educate and catechise the world's children. This is Br. Donald's job-- he's a theologian and Integral Studies professor at St. Mary's College in Moraga, California. He's an expert on the Middle East. But he sometimes get's a substitute to take over his classes while he's on "special assignment." Between the recent Iraq wars, he entered Iraq and rescued persecuted Christians.

Brother Donald is the next guest speaker at the Breakfast Club. He'll tell us about how his order no longer makes the famous Christian Brothers Brandy. Instead, it manages its own major portfolio outperforming the S&P 500. The brothers have taken a vow of poverty. The portfolio finances their global educational missions.

Join Br. Donald for breakfast and listen to his stories. His students call him, "International Man of Mystery." How many languages does he speak? Did he need to read the sub-titles in The Passion of the Christ? Find out. Fascinating. Surprising. Inspiring.

Thursday, April 15, Sterling's Restaurant, Silver Legacy,
